

Introduction to Incident Response and the Coordinated Incident Management System (CIMS) 3rd Edition

Emergency Preparedness Services Ltd.
www.epscims.co.nz/doc
info@epscims.co.nz
Phone: (04)801-6550

Course topics:

- What is incident management?
- History of the Coordinated Incident Management System (CIMS) in New Zealand
- CIMS use as a Response and/or Planning Tool
- Overview of the four 'R's of New Zealand Emergency Management
- Principles and characteristics of CIMS
- Control and Command
- Lead and Support Agencies
- Unified Control
- Situational Awareness
- Common Operating Picture
- Incident Level CIMS functions
- Incident Level Response
- Develop an initial understanding of an incident, and what response is required
- Levels of response – from the incident level to the National Security System
- Additional CIMS functions at the operational and coordination levels
- Develop and implement plans
- How the various levels of response interact and support each other
- Outputs from Coordination Centres
- Putting it together: Examples of Various Response Scenarios
- Incident Classification System
- Overview of the National Security System
- Overview of Civil Defence Emergency Management in New Zealand
- Agency responsibilities during responses
- Personal Preparedness – ensuring you and your family are prepared for disasters and are prepared for you to take part in your agency's response
- NZQA Certification – CIMS3

CIMS / Emergency Management Acronyms

CIMS / Emergency Management Acronyms

AIIMS	Australian Inter-service Incident Management System
AoG	All-of-Government
CDC	Civil Defence Centre
CIMS	Coordinated Incident Management System (NZ)
DCC	District Command Centre (NZ Police)
DPMC	Department Prime Minister and Cabinet
ECC	Emergency Coordination Centre (Regional)
EM	Emergency Management
EMIS	Emergency Management Information System
EOC	Emergency Operation Centre (Local)
EMAT	Emergency Management Assistance Team
FENZ	Fire Emergency NZ (formerly NZ Fire Service)
FEMA	Federal Emergency Management Agency (USA)
IAP	Incident Action Plan
ICP	Incident Control Point
ICS	Incident Command System
IMT	Incident Management Team
MCDEM	Ministry Civil Defence and Emergency Management
NCC	National Coordination Centre (National)
NCMC	National Crisis Management Centre (The Bunker)
NEMA	National Emergency Management Agency
NIMS	National Incident Management System (USA)
NSS	National Security System
NZDF	NZ Defence Force
ODESC	Officials Committee for Domestic and External Security Coordination
PIM	Public Information Management
PNHQ	Police National Headquarters
SAR	Search and Rescue
SFP	Safe Forward Point
SitRep	Situation Report
SOP	Standard Operating Procedure
TAG	Technical Advisory Group
USAR	Urban Search and Rescue

Four R's of NZ Emergency Management:

1. R _____
2. R _____
3. R _____
4. R _____
5. Bonus 5th R _____

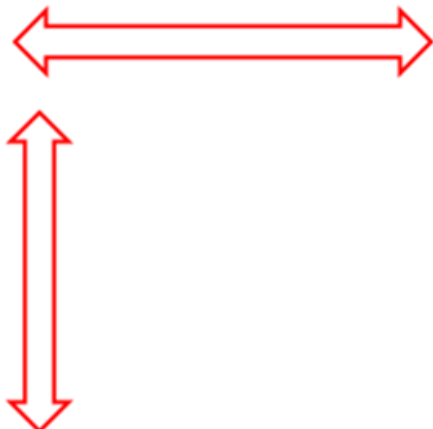

CIMS : Three Principles

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____

CIMS: Nine Characteristics

1. _____
2. _____
3. _____
4. _____
5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____

Control, Command and Coordination

Lead and Support Agencies

Lead Agency :

Support Agency:

Unified Control:

Situational Awareness:

Common Operating Picture:

CIMS – Incident Management Team

CONTROLLER

SAFETY

INTELLIGENCE

PLANNING

OPERATIONS

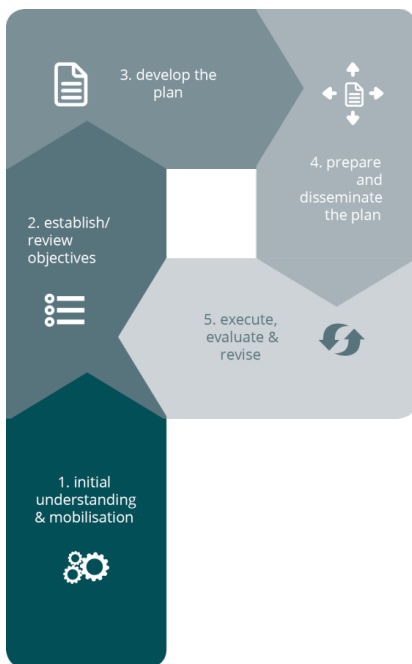

LOGISTICS

PIM

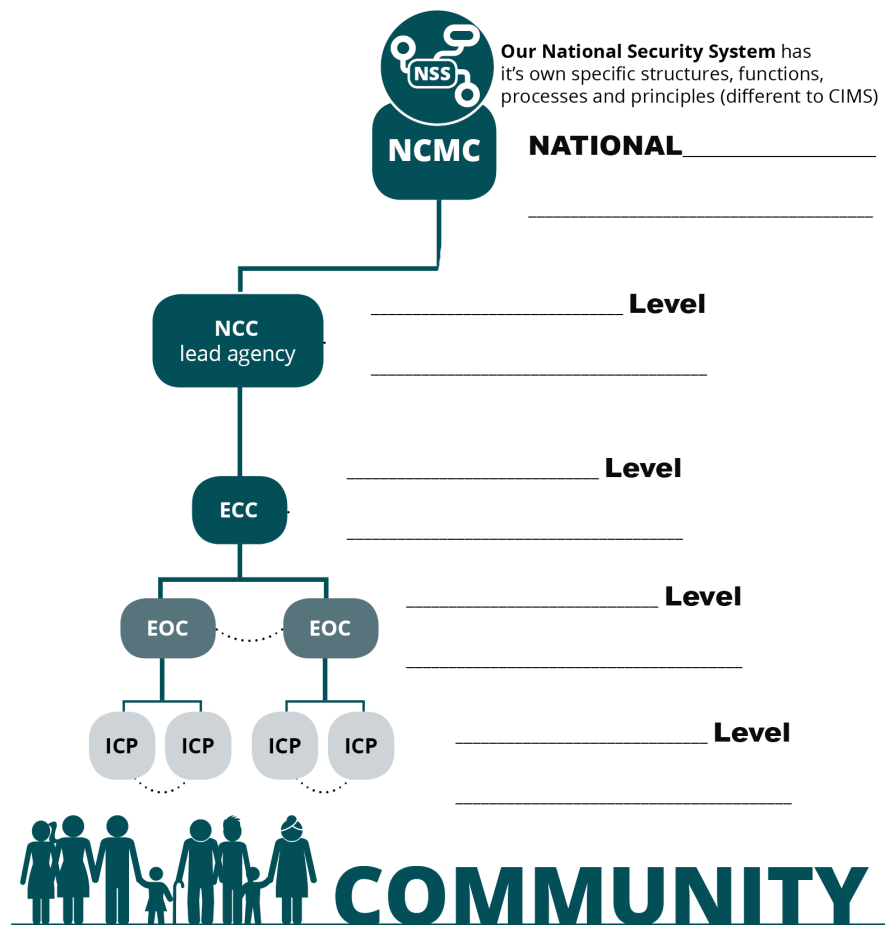

WELFARE

Initial Questions after Incident Occurs

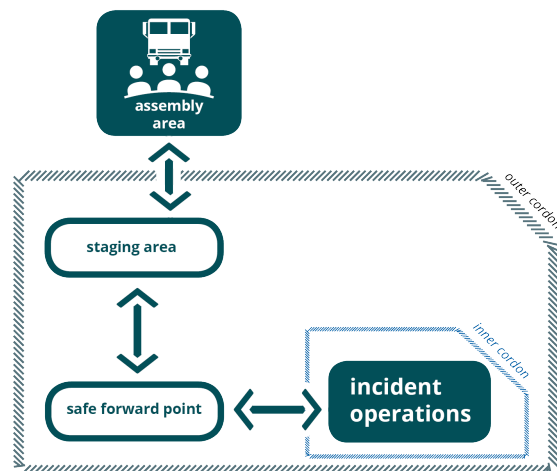

- 1.
- 2.
- 3.
- 4.
- 5.
- 6.

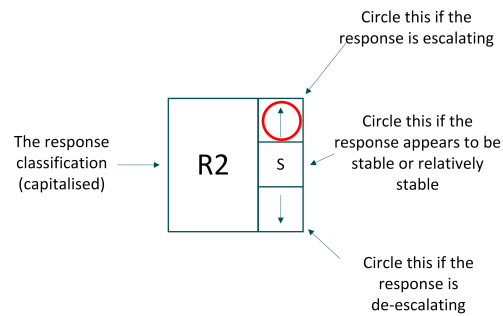

Levels of Response

CIMS Facilities

Incident Classifications

Full CIMS 3rd Edition Structure

